GUY GREENLAND 2014 RACE SEASON

GEERACING.COM

BIO - GUY GREENLAND

Starting his career in motocross at the tender age of 5, it wasn't long before Guy 'Gee' Greenland rode his first jet ski and started his professional career racing on the Australian National Tour at only 12 becoming the youngest pro racer to win the Australian title at the age of 14.

Beginning his marine apprenticeship under 10 time Australian champion Todd Ross, Guy persisted with his racing, winning multiple championships throughout this time before completing his qualifications in 2003.

Teaming up with the Jet Ski industry Guy has been hands on with the promotion and organisation of numerous events including the Australian Nationals and Yamaha Triple Crown. Working alongside global companies such as Redbull, Quicksilver, Ripcurl and Surf Live Saving Australia at professional water sport events Guy managed the water patrol at the Billabong Pro from 2005-2007.

Winning two world titles at Lake Havasu, Arizona in 2007 Guy then returned to his home shores of the Gold Coast, Australia teaming up with fellow racer James Masterton to open a Kawasaki dealership at popular surfing spot Burleigh Heads in 2008.

Residing in the US for three years from 2009 and teaming up with 16 time world champion Dustin Farthing, Guy was involved in racing at multiple tour stops on the National Tour including Cayman Islands, Guadeloupe, Bahamas, New Zealand, Lake Havasu and many others.

Returning to Australia in 2011 to start his own performance watercraft modifications and service shop on the Gold Coast and organization of personal watercraft events, Guy has been busy promoting the upcoming 2014 Australian Watercross and Enduro National tour as well as the Australian Freeride Nationals.

In 2014 Guy's plans include riding for Yamaha, with support from Gary Watson and Worx Racing Components will work together in building a Yamaha FZS SVHO to compete in the Pro Open Runabout class on the Australian National Tour, New Zealand Nationals, Mark Hahn Enduro Championship in Lake Havasu, Arizona, China National Tour, World jetski finals Lake Havasu Arizona and Kings Cup Thailand.
